Proclamation of

New Moon

(Mebarkhim Hachodesh)

The Tashlich you are doing on Rosh Hashanna, by driving to the place of prayer desecrates

the Yom Tov, It is a Mitzvah accompanied by Averah, forbidden by any means.

Therefore, I appeal to you to do the Tashlich after Rosh

Hashanna on one of the days of the Ten days of Repentance. By doing so, you will prevent cause to others to Sin. The Past will be considered by G-d as unintentional errors.

1) Nails should be cut on Friday

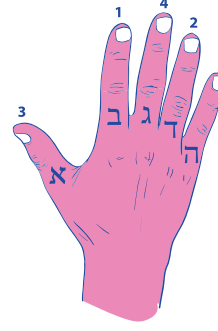

2) Some people do not cut the nails of their hand and feet on the same day and some people do not cut their nails and hair on Rosh Chodesh.

3) It is written in the Gemara that, he who burns his nails is religious, he who buries his nails is honest and he who throws them on the ground is wicked.

4) Nails should be cut in the ordered manner as given below, firstly, the left hand and then the right hand.
